Title: Me and my pretty face!

Hey! Let me introduce myself. I'm Dorian Gray, a respectable Londoner. I'm a young beautiful young man, I work as a digital influencer and a great model. I have a lot of fans on Instagram and Tik Tok. Everyday I post a new photo of myself and get a million likes, but this week, my photo didn't go viral and I was really upset. I love sharing my day and what I do with everybody. I have more than 2 million followers. I feel obligated to post contents for my admirers.

I started working as a model when I was only 10 years old. It was an immediate success! Every company in the UK hired me for a photoshoot. But, there was a problem... They were looking for a light blond model, and my hair was dark blond. I talked to my mom and decided to dye my hair. It was the best decision I've ever made. I dye my hair once a week nowadays at a professional hair salon. I feel much prettier than I already am.

Everyday I wake up early, have my fit breakfast and go to the gym. This is essential to stay strong. I go everywhere with a small mirror, so I can see if I'm still good and pretty. This mirror is my favorite object in the whole world. In the afternoon, I hang out at the mall with my colleagues, because we love shopping. When I have jobs, I normally do one week of massage sessions, so then I can be relaxed. I could never not look fabulous.

I live in a huge and pretty house, just like myself. I used to have two best friends, but they started to get jealous of my fame and, as I hate copycats, I ended those relationships. I reckon a lot of people are envious of my talent. I have haters who judge me just for being cool. I don't really care, because I'm sure I am one of the most incredible people alive today.

My place has a lot of photos of myself in all situations you can possibly imagine. I also have lots of mirrors on the walls so I can appreciate my beautiful face everytime. Some people say I'm narcissistic. What's wrong with loving yourself? I don't see any problem! I just think I'm handsome, it is not my fault!

Girls love me! I'm feared by the married men here in the city. I've ended up a lot of relationships. It's like I'm a magnet for girls, they're always following me. Not even men can resist my beauty. Everyday on my Instagram direct, people ask me to go on a date or for me to take exclusive photos to send them. I don't have time for obsessed fans, and if I had, I would never do it! They are annoying and give me wrinkles. But I still am really nice to everyone, some people even think I'm faking it.

As you are very curious, I'm going to reveal my secret for staying perfectly young at 32 years old. Everyday I do skincare; Clean my face delicately with magnificent branded products. I always drink water to stay hydrated. I have some "friends" who are so jealous of me that they have had surgeries to look good, and meanwhile, I am naturally beautiful without any type of botox or anything like that.

In conclusion, my life is perfect, I'm a successful and beautiful model and I work very hard to stay young because, by the way, beauty is the most important thing nowadays. I need to be in the beauty standards, because if I don't, people won't like me. My life couldn't be more amazing! I love myself and everybody loves me.
